

All Levels Welcome!
Three and four-day intensive classes

Take a well-deserved break from life and recharge your creativity in the comfort of our air-conditioned studios. These intensive classes will offer you the opportunity to expand upon your creativity and skills as you express yourself through your favorite medium.

Clay-working: Inspiration and Expression
08SCA303A

Instructor: Tom O'Malley
Monday, Wednesday and Friday
8/18, 8/20, 8/22, 10:00 AM - 4:00 PM
3 classes / All Levels / Ceramics Studios

Tuition and Fees: Non-Member Fee: $199.00 / Member Fee: $179.00 / Materials Fee: $5.00

In this hands-on workshop we will work as a group and individually, asking the question; what inspires us and how do we express this in our work? Through a series of creative and fun exercises you will be encouraged to dig into and search out sources of inspiration. The sky is the limit, as the instructor guides you through presentations and discussions on creativity, along with demonstrations on a wide range of clay working techniques that help you express your ideas. Students will receive individual and group instruction and have ample work time to work through their ideas in both the throwing and handbuilding studios. Part of the Vacation in the Studios Series.

Boxes, Vessels and Containers
08SWA202A

Instructor: TBA
Monday, August 18 –Thursday, August 21, 10:00 AM - 4:00 PM
4 classes / All Levels / Wood Studio

Tuition and Fees: Non-Member Fee: $265.00 / Member Fee: $239.00 / Studio Fee: $15.00

In this intensive four-day class, examine the idea of what it means to contain something, what kind of things can be contained, and how they may be contained. Utilizing a range of wood working techniques, students may design a range of forms from ban saw boxes to jewelry boxes. While held in the woodworking studio, students will be encouraged to explore other materials like metal, paper, textiles and found objects to create unique and highly personal containers. The first class will focus on the safe use of equipment and group discussions about each student's proposed project. Part of the Vacation in the Studios Series. See above for more detail.
